Coach – Barry Fry

Canada Safeway Limited is proud to be the title sponsor of the Safeway Select Provincial Men's Curling Championship. Safeway's involvement in curling dates back to 1991 when they were the title sponsor of the 1991 Safeway World Curling Championships played in Winnipeg.

The 2004-2005 season marked the eleventh year that Canada Safeway has been the title sponsor of the Provincial Men's Curling Championship. The Manitoba Curling Association is pleased that Canada Safeway has extended its sponsorship through the 2006 championship.

Canada Safeway presents the winning team with keeper trophies, championship rings and a Safeway Team Sponsorship package. They also present the winners with a championship banner to be hung in the winners home club. The MCA presents the winners with the coveted purple hearts as well as the Manitoba Buffalo crests, provincial jackets, pants and shirts.

The winner of the Safeway Select Trophy (Manitoba) will represent the province at the Tim Horton Brier, emblematic of the Canadian Men's Curling Championship.

The 2004-2005 championship was played at the Selkirk Recreation Complex in Selkirk, Manitoba where the Randy Dutiaume team from Valour Road defeated the Ryan Fry team from the St Vital Curling Club in the final. The Dutiaume team went on to Edmonton, where they finished with a record of 8 and 3.

The 2005-2006 Safeway Select will be played at the T.G. Smith Centre in Steinbach, Manitoba from February 8-12, 2006. The Brier will be held in Regina, Saskatchewan from March 11-19, 2006.

Strathcona Senior Men's Championship

Granite Curling Club

(L-R) Doug Harrison, Howard Restall, Doug Holmes, Bill Hodgson, Jack Callum
– Strathcona Trust

Finalists:

Fort Rouge Curling Club
– Ron Westcott, Dave Suchy,
Bob Boughey, Ron Toews

The Manitoba Senior Men's Championship for men 50 years and over is run under the name Strathcona Senior Men's Championship. In April 1985, the Strathcona Curling Club, through its trustees Jack Callum, Lyle Henry, and Bruce Hudson, presented trust funds to the MCA to sponsor the Provincial Senior Men's Curling Championships in perpetuity.

The Strathcona Trophy is presented for annual competition commencing with the 1985-86 season recognizing the contribution to curling by the Strathcona at the executive and competitive levels nationally, provincially and locally.

In addition to the trophy, the winner and runner-up receive individual plaques. The winners also receive Buffalo crests, provincial jackets, pants and shirts. A banner is also presented to the winning team to hang in their club as a reminder of their success.

The winner of the Strathcona Senior Men's Provincial Championship will represent Manitoba at the Canadian Senior Men's Championship.

The 2004-2005 provincial championship was played at the West Kildonan Curling Club, where the Howard Restall team from the Granite defeated the Ron Westcott team from Fort Rouge to claim the Senior championship. They went on to the Canadian Championship held in East St. Paul, Manitoba, where they finished with a record of 5 and 6 and out of the playoffs. The final was won by the Les Rogers team from Alberta.

A World Senior Men's and Women's Championship was run concurrently with the World Men's and Women's in Scotland from March 19-26, 2005.

The 2005-2006 Strathcona Senior Men's Championship will be played at the Melita Curling Club from March 2-6, 2006. The Canadian Senior Men's Championship will be held in Summerside, PEI, March 19-26, 2006.

The Manitoba Masters Provincial Championship is sponsored by Manitoba's Credit Unions. The Masters Championship for men 60 years and over was established back in 1982. It originally was called the A.A. Alex Williamson Memorial Shield in honour of a good friend of curling and the long time Secretary Treasurer of the Association.

In 1997-98, Manitoba's Credit Unions became sponsors for the championship and it was named the Manitoba's Credit Unions Masters Provincial Championship.

In addition to the trophy the winner and runner-up receive individual plaques. The winners also receive the Manitoba Buffalo crests, provincial jackets, pants and shirts. The winner's club also receives a banner to hang in their club to honour their champions

The winner of the Manitoba's Credit Union Masters Provincial Championship represents Manitoba at the Canadian Open Masters Championship to declare the Canadian champion.

The 2004-2005 championship was played at the Portage Curling Club, where the Doug Armour team from the Souris Curling Club defeated the Martin Bailey team from the Heather Curling Club to claim the Masters championship. They went on to the Canadian Open Championship held in Brandon, Manitoba where they finished the round robin undefeated with a record of 7 wins and in first place. The Armour team then stole in an extra end against British Columbia in the final and captured the 2005 Canadian Open Championship.

The 2005-2006 Manitoba's Credit Unions Masters Championship will be played in Killarney, Manitoba from March 8-12, 2006. The Canadian Open Masters Championship will be held at the Bridgewater Curling Club in Nova Scotia, April 2-7, 2006.

Canadian Wheelchair Curling Championship

For the first time in 2004-2005, Manitoba was represented at the Canadian Wheelchair Curling Championship. A team made up of Winnipeggers Chris Sobkowicz, Allen Lasko and Jackie Burns along with Diane Hrychuk of Dauphin represented Manitoba in the competition at Richmond, BC.

The Manitoba Curling Association and the Manitoba Wheelchair Sports Association co-sponsored Team Manitoba which was competitive, but winless, in their first trip to the championship. Manitoba Curling Association Technical Director Bill Biehl, a Level 3 Certified Coach, accompanied the team as their coach.

The Canadian title was won by Ontario with Scotland winning the World Championship. The 2005-2006 champions will represent Canada at the World Paralympic Games in Italy.
